Republican Rally.

Lloyd's Opera House.
Saturday Ev'g, Nov. 2d.

Fred Collins,
of Lincoln, and other orators will address the audience.
EVERYBODY ATTEND!

RITNER'S DECLARATION.
In regard to the false statements which are being circulated over the county that I am pledged to the question of granting additional help and increase of salary to the county superintendent if elected to the office of county commissioner, I wish to say there is absolutely nothing in said report. I stand upon that question the same as I do upon the question of county printing, namely, keep the expenses down as low as possible.

I wish to say that if I am elected commissioner there will be no more donations of county money to the Era, but that the county publishing will be done by the lowest competent bidder regardless of political complexion.

JOHN R. RITNER,
Republican Candidate for County Commissioner.

MINOR MENTION.

—J. F. Schmalzried has in his store a dwarf orange tree upon which there are four well developed oranges.

—John E. Jones and Miss Etta Belle Craue, both of this city, were united in marriage by Judge Ray Saturday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hirst, formerly of this city, who have been living at Brightwood, Ind., have removed to Omaha.

—Smoke Wright's Royal Sports and Havana Rose—5-cent cigars.

—A number of U. P. employees, assisted by other citizens, burned an extensive fire guard west of the city limits yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. Doolittle entertained a number of young people one evening the latter part of the week in favor of Miss Boehne.

—We are requested to announce that there are twenty numbers on the programme of the firemen's ball and dancing will continue from nine until one o'clock.

—There are about 175 cases on the trial docket of the term of district court which convenes Nov. 18th, a very large proportion of which are equity cases.

—That highly interesting comedy drama, "The Pay Train," will be presented at Lloyd's on Monday evening of next week by a very capable company. The play is pretty certain to please the audience.

—Mrs. Nellie Peale announces to the ladies of North Platte that she is prepared to sew by the day. Those wishing her services will leave word with Mrs. W. H. Blood, over Williams' store.

—Messrs. Graves, Dalson, Herrod, Woodhurst and the other half dozen members of the hunting party returned last evening from the northwest, looking shaggy but hale and hearty. They did not find game abundant in the section visited, and had poor success.

—P. F. Dolan is not making a vigorous campaign for county commissioner, having, we are told, abandoned concluded that it is time wasted. Mr. Dolan, we are informed, is at Hyannis this week on business. John R. Ritner is the candidate for whom the voters of the Second district should cast their ballots.

—If Rev. Franklin is as poor as he claims—and his poverty cry seems to be his stock of campaign material—why didn't he accept the ministerial charge which it is said was offered him? Or if he don't want to preach why not seek other employment? Are we to presume that if his wife is not elected superintendent that he will die of starvation?

DR. W. A. DEBERRY,
DENTIST.
Office in First Nat. Bank Bldg.

—The Y. M. C. A. is contemplating a gymnasium which will be first-class, if they can secure the members necessary. They will put in apparatus costing from $175 to $200 in a room 18x40 feet, directly across the hall from the bath rooms. A membership to the association including the gymnasium will be $5.00. Any one holding a membership ticket at present can have the use of the gymnasium for $2.00 more. It is the intention of the association to make it a credit to the town and it will be conducted in a business way in every particular. Come, now, fellows, if you are in favor of the enterprise call at the rooms and tell us what you will do. If enough of the ladies desire to use the gymnasium, special hours will be reserved for them and the room turned over to them. H. B. H.

—Sister Madeline, of the Nativity Convent, arrived from Denver yesterday.

—F. E. Bullard, of this city, has had conferred upon him the Thirty-third degree of Masonry.

—John Hawley, of Sutherland, was in town yesterday looking after his political fences.

—Mrs. C. E. Osgood has moved from the ranch to town and is occupying a house in the First ward.

—Frank Wiser went to Sidney Saturday to accept a position as night watchman for the Union Pacific company.

—Miss Bertha Thoelecke was unable to teach school yesterday owing to sickness and her place was filled by Miss Mable Goozee.

—G. H. Bush is getting ready to move his stock of flour and feed to the corner building two doors west of his present location.

—T. Furiuso Gantt and J. Gasbag Beeler will deliver speeches at a populist meeting to be held at Gandy next Saturday.

—Scott Vaughan left Monday morning for Rock Springs, Wyo., where he has secured a position with a coal company.

—The Daughters of the King will entertain the young people of the Episcopal parish and their friends at the guild house next Thursday evening.

—Rudyard Kipling's new story, which the Ladies' Home Journal is about to begin, is a romance of India—really a strong love story—and has for its title "William the Conqueror."

—Doctor Aley, of Lincoln, has had ten years' experience in treating chronic diseases. He will again be at the Hotel Neville, North Platte, Monday, Nov. 11th. Consult him if afflicted. He stays but one day.

—Ducks and geese are now quite plentiful on the rivers and sloughs, and local hunters are having very fair success. A large number of sportsmen were out Sunday, some of whom made good bags.

—No one should miss the concert from 8 to 9 at the Firemen's Dance Thursday evening. Prof. Garlich's orchestra has been practicing for the last two weeks on new music and the public is promised a treat. Two lady vocalists of acknowledged ability will also render selections.

—At the Saturday shoot of the gun club W. E. Price made the best score—15 out of 20—and retains the medal. The booby was shifted from M. K. Barium to W. L. Park. If Price wins at the next shoot he keeps the medal permanently, but it is likely he will have stronger competition at the next meeting.

—A. O. Randall, living on Paxton & Hershey land, was in town yesterday and gave us some information in regard to his seed crop. Mr. Randall has been raising seeds for eastern firms for the past seven years, and says his success this year, through the use of irrigation, is greater than ever before. He had twenty acres out in vines, six in watermelon, six in muskmelon, five in cucumber, one and a half in squash and one and a half in citron. He began gathering the muskmelon crop last week and found he had seventy-six big wagon loads. From these he expects to extract at least 1,500 pounds of seed, which at ten cents per pound will bring him an average of $25 per acre. The other crops have not yet been harvested, but he predicts they will do equally as well. Mr. Randall is so well pleased with the result this season that next year he will plant sixty acres to watermelons. He grows for the Western Seed Co., which has its headquarters at Waterloo, Neb. Mr. Randall says the eastern seed houses give western Nebraska the credit of growing the best vine seeds in the United States.

RAILROAD ROTATIONS.

Supt R. R. Sutherland was in town Saturday.

Engine 685 blew out a cylinder head at Wood River Saturday, causing considerable delay.

Ed. Seyferth is constructing a crane to be used in connection with the lathe run by Dick Wood.

W. H. McDonald and Will Smallwood were in Grand Island Saturday on business pertaining to the Masonic lodge.

Engine 721 came out of the shops Saturday and yesterday the 694 and 773 went in for repairs. The 745 came up Sunday from Omaha where it was overhauled.

Thirty-six dead sheep were taken out of double-decked cars at this station last Saturday. Over crowding caused the death of the animals.

Seventeen trains were sent out of this city between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday. Four of these were solid trains of sheep from the west.

—The insidious disease, consumption, robbed us of another well-known resident last Saturday morning in the person of Mrs. George S. Baskins. Mrs. Baskins had been fighting this disease for over a year and as is usually the case with those thus afflicted, she thought she would prove conqueror, but during the past month she failed rapidly and friends knew that earthly dissolution was not far off. Her last hours were peaceful and quiet; the soul passing to the beyond while that which is mortal slumbered. Mrs. Baskins with her husband came from Williamsport, Pa., to this city in 1879, and during that long term of residence won the friendship of a large circle of acquaintances who deeply regret her demise. The remains were taken Sunday to Williamsport for interment, accompanied by Mr. Baskins and Miss Rank, the latter a sister of the deceased. To the husband, the two young sons, and the relatives of the family, the warmest sympathy of our people is extended.

—Mrs. John Kenworthy, who with her husband has resided on the Hendy ranch near Maxwell for a year or more, died on Friday night last from the effects of a tumor, with which she had been troubled for some time. The deceased was a very estimable and kind-hearted woman, and had many friends in and around North Platte who will regret to learn of her death. The funeral services were conducted by W. J. Crusen at the home of the deceased after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at Brady Island.

Asleep in Jesus: Though the way, The best and burden of the day, Were followed to her weary feet, She sleeps in Jesus! Rest most sweet! Asleep in Jesus! Angels lead: With her the pathway up to God! Adoring now before the throne, She stands a freely purchased one. Asleep in Jesus! Waiting care Can never cast one shadow there, No chilling blight from earth below Shall dim the spirit's ransomed glow.

pointment at this place last Sunday morning, being confined to his bed at that time.

Mrs. A. B. Goodwin of North Platte visited relatives in this locality last week.

C. C. Wetzel transacted business at the county seat yesterday.

Local sports are trying to rid this country of wild geese, but are making very poor headway in that line. The revival meeting in progress at this place under the supervision of W. J. Crusen of North Platte are well attended and a deep interest manifested. Rev. Coslett the new pastor for this circuit preached last evening and Rev. C. C. Snavely of North Platte will preach this evening.

Several of the seed growers in this country are now washing the same in the south river and preparing them for market. The crop is more than an average.

It has been almost impossible lately for the shippers of baled hay to procure cars for that purpose.

The old canal company now owns the old school building at this place and will soon move it over upon its land near the station, where it will be converted into a dwelling.

W. A. Paxton of Omaha was looking after business in this locality recently.

J. H. Giffin, of Brady Island, a former merchant at Hershey, was at that place on business a few days ago.

Mrs. G. E. Sullivan and two little boys have returned from a visit with relatives at Brady Island.

"Neville on irrigation" as published in last week's Era will have about as much effect upon the voters in this judicial district as a tumble weed upon a wind storm.

If we mistake not we saw Frank McKee taking a spin around this country upon his bicycle last Sunday.

It is stated that Rev. Randolph from up the line will preach at this place next Thursday evening and remain over Sunday and assist in the revival.

Several from Hinman and Hershey attended church at this place last Sunday afternoon and evening.

H. W. Brown was laid up with a lame foot two or three days lately.

Relatives from Gothenburg have been stopping at J. W. Liles for some time past.

—James Whitcomb Riley has completed a new series of poems in which he varies the treatment of each one to such an extent that they are said to show the Hoosier poet's versatility to a remarkable degree. He has given the series to the Ladies' Home Journal, in which the first is about to be published. A. B. Frost has been engaged by the magazine to illustrate the poems.
